

Ramon Furriols Franch is a Social Lawyer registered in the official college of Barcelona. He was studying in the University of Barcelona - Faculty of Law and working in an NGO providing consultant services on immigration law. He has been involved in legal aid and support to non-governmental organisations and other local entities of his region. Now is currently working for ANTIGONE as an assistant project manager, as well as in the implementation of anti-discrimination initiatives at European and local levels. He speaks Catalan, Spanish and English, and Greek in a basic level.