

PRESS RELEASE

21/5/2014

The Homosexual Lesbian Community of Greece (OLKE) and ANTIGONE – Information and Documentation Centre on Racism, Ecology, Peace and Non Violence, in the framework of the pan-european campaign “No hate during the electoral campaign of 2014” (#NoHateEP2014) invite you in a conference with the title “The consequences of rhetoric of hatred on the image and the rights of vulnerable groups”, which will take place on Friday 23 May 2014, at 19.30, at the Café Polis, at 5, Pemasoglou street.

The following thematic topics will be developed and discussed in an analytical way :

- “The importance of combating rhetoric of hatred against vulnerable groups from the Greek Ombudsman’s point of view” (Speech by Ms Chryssa Hatzi, Special Scientific Associate of the Ombudsman)
- “Greek Media and hate speech : inspection of an unpleasant and permanent reality” (Speech by the journalists Ms Eleftheria Koumantou and Mr Haris Savvidis, members of the Greek Observatory against fascism and racist hatred and speech in mass media”)
- “The impact of hate speech on the image of LGBTQ persons in Greece (Speech by Mr George Haronis, administrator of the “Colour Youth , community of LGBTQ young people of Athens”)”.

Discussion will follow.

European Network Against Racism
Réseau européen contre le racisme
Europäisches Netz gegen Rassismus

