

Campaign with #NoHateEP2014

Conference with title: Media' s rhetoric of hatred against vulnerable groups

“Joint campaign initiatives between LGBTI and anti-racist organisations ahead of the European election 2014”

Tuesday 13 May 2014

Multiplace “Oikopolis”, 29A Ptolemaion Street, 5th floor, Thessaloniki

Programme of speeches

09.30 - 10.00	Arrival / registrations
10.00 - 10.30	“Rhetoric, definitions and semiotic of media: direct and indirect cultivation of climate of discrimination and racism” Mr Michalis Tremopoulos, journalist – lawyer, ex MEP
10.30 - 11.00	“The negative consequences of hate speech transmitted by Greek Media and its impacts on the life of vulnerable groups of our cities” Ms Eleanna Ioannidou, lawyer, activist of human rights
11.00 - 11.30	“The role of Independent Authorities and NGOs in combating hate speech written in the press or broadcasted by radio and television” Mr Andreas Takis, Professor of Philosophy in Aristoteleion University of Thessaloniki, ex Head of the Human Rights Directorate of Greek Ombudsman
11.30 - 12.00	Discussion for a common finding and localisation of solutions and practical methods to confront hate speech conveyed by national and local mass media from a legal, political, deontological and civil society’s point of view
12.00 - 12.15	Break for coffee

Programme of interactive workshop (coordination : ANTIGONE team)

12.15 - 12.30	Registrations (maximum number of participants : 20)
12.30 - 12.45	Game of acquaintance
12.45 - 14.00	Hate speech in the media : cases and impacts (case study, working groups)
14.00 - 15.15	Confronting rhetoric of hatred in public speech transmitted by media in Greece (participatory activity with experiential character)

European Network Against Racism
Réseau européen contre le racisme
Europäisches Netz gegen Rassismus

