From January till July 2018, “ANTIGONE- Information and Documentation Centre on Racism, Ecology, Peace and Non-Violence” organised a wide range of activities:

1. Prepared research reports for LEGALNET
2. Coordinated and participated in projects financed by EU, international and national private foundations
3. Organised multiple voluntary activities and participated in networks and various activities organised by other organisations

1. LEGALNET – European Network of legal experts on gender equality and non-discrimination

LEGALNET is the European Network of Legal Experts on Gender Equality and Non-Discrimination, established in 2004 following an EU initiative implementing the Action Plan against racism. The actions of the programme included the specialised monitoring of all institutional developments on a legislative and jurisprudential level. Researches, surveys and studies on the application of the principle of equal treatment amongst EU Member-states, in accordance to Directives 43/2000 and 78/2000, were also developed within the programme’s framework. Since 2010, ANTIGONE has been chosen three consecutive times to participate on behalf of Greece in the aforementioned Network, carrying out annually a series of scientific studies following the request of the European Commission.

The deliverables of the year 2018 have already been completed and are the following:

- I. Annual Report on the application of the non-discrimination Directives in Greece concerning the previous year 2017 : basic text and executive summary (120 pages)
- II. Flash Reports:
 - a) Abolition of age limit for the position of a specialised doctor in the National Health System
 - b) Recognition of benefits regarding access to insurance coverage and medico-pharmaceutical care
 - c) Non enforcement of principle of equal treatment at competition held by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs
 - d) Exclusion of Greek citizens from appointments in the country’s Municipalities, Regions and Social Welfare Centers due to their ethnic origin
- III. Thematic Studies:
 - a) Ad hoc Request on the situation of Equality Bodies
 - b) Ad hoc Request on the application of the free movement Directive regarding same sex couples

2. IMPLEMENTATION OF PROJECTS

2.1 Projects in progress

-National Integration Evaluation Mechanism ALL IN FOR INTEGRATION (NIEM): NIEM is a European scientific program dedicated to the measurement, evaluation and monitoring of the integration of populations under international protection. The participating actors come from Greece, Poland, Belgium, Spain, Portugal, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, France, Hungary, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Netherlands, Romania, Slovenia and Sweden. The project is implemented in the framework of the programme run by the European Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund AMIF from April 2017 until September 2021.

<http://www.forintegration.eu/pl/project-partners>

-Reflective Expressive Artistic Learning (REAL): Organizations from United Kingdom, Portugal, Poland, Lithuania and Greece collaborate in a project that explores the learning opportunities for young people with disabilities in the creative sector and reflect on inclusive practices raising aspirations of young disabled artists. Project includes learning teaching training events in each partner country as well as transnational meetings, learning events, online discussion and evaluation activities. This Erasmus+ KA2 project started in July 2018 and is going to be completed in July 2020.

-Schools for change: For the seventh school year, ANTIGONE with the support of the Heinrich Boell Foundation in Greece continues to collaborate with the school community (public education actors, school directors, teachers, parents and students) for the realisation of various non-formal education activities not only in the prefecture of Thessaloniki but also in Greece in general. This year is the third school year that “Schools for change” project focuses on the promotion of peer mediation in the school community as a means of peaceful resolution of conflicts in school and in the group. In parallel, the project involves activities in various thematic units such as: human rights, xenophobia-racism, gender identity, hate speech, ecology and society etc.

The entire educational activities of ANTIGONE aim to promote education for peace through awareness raising activities as a basis to reach democratic and participatory schools for all students without discrimination. The project involves educational programmes for students of every age, training sessions for teachers as well as experiential seminars for parents. The project started in 2012 and runs on school year basis. Until today, more than 1,400 educational programmes and seminars for students, teachers and parents have taken place in cities and villages in Thessaloniki and other prefectures (Kozani, Ioannina, Pella, Pieria, Imathia, Chalkidiki, Kilkis etc).

-MED-looking Youth Shaping EU Policy for a “Ready Europe” (RE-YourEU): The wider objective of the project is to engage the participant countries (Italy, Spain, Greece) in anti-discrimination practices and migrants' inclusion issues trying to develop and promote concrete and participatory approaches to "migration crisis", a major EU problem, along with the "integration VS inclusion" challenges at local, national and transnational level.

On the ground of promoting citizenship and common values of freedom, tolerance and non-discrimination through education, the project promotes the direct involvement and participation of young people in the policy shaping through a coherent structured dialogue process to ensure the effectiveness and comprehensive approach needed for making the most of the ideas and energies of future generations of European citizens. This Erasmus+ project started in October 2017 and will be completed in July 2019.

-Cross the Borders: This project supports the professional development of youth workers through the implementation of activities including transnational / international seminars, training courses, contact-making events, study visits and job observation periods in organizations active in the youth field. The partnership between Greece, Italy, Hungary and Spain aims to share best practices among youth workers in the field of youth migrants and empower social workers with abilities to better manage stress in work situation. The project that runs from April 2018 and will be completed in June 2019 is funded by Erasmus+ KA1 programme.

<http://www.antigone.gr/en/projects/project/42/description/>

-UNINTEGRA: ANTIGONE participates in the development and implementation of actions under UNINTEGRA project in Greece. The organisation takes on the preparation of an international training programme addressing refugees, the development of the curricula and the conduction of the reporting of the workshops. The objective of the action is to support refugees on their daily life, support and social attention, social integration and social inclusion. Under the partnership with the Spanish ASCAR Foundation the project's activities will be conducted in June 2018 and during the first semester of 2019. The project is funded by EU Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund (AMIF).

-Words are stones: The project aims at involving NGO activists and European citizens from Greece, Italy, Spain, France, Austria and Cyprus in stopping the present process of cultural, social, political and media legitimization of racism and xenophobia in the political and public debate. It includes research and dissemination activities, international meetings between youth activists, publication of reports and hand-books, video-clips, webpages etc. This Europe for Citizens project starts in September 2018 and will end in February 2020.

-Managing Issues of Controversy by human Rights education (M.I.C.R.ON!): Under the project ANTIGONE aims to motivate and support the educational community to take action towards democratic citizenship and human rights education through the implementation of educational programs on handling controversy. Project includes the translation and dissemination of the CoE educational toolkit “Managing Controversy” in Greek language, the implementation of a series of workshops for official education actors, school directors and teachers in 5 regions of Greece (Thessaloniki, Ioannina, Achaia, Heraklion and Lesvos) as well as the organization of an educational conference in Thessaloniki. The project is funded under Democratic and Inclusive School Culture in Operation programme by the Council of Europe; started in September 2018 and will be completed in March 2019.

<http://www.antigone.gr/en/projects/project/43/description/>

-SalonIC: Symbiosis ‘n’ InterCulturality (SIC): This project comprises the organization of an intercultural festival in Thessaloniki that will be carried out with the participation of various cultural NGOs and artists. The aim is to get to know the human geography of the city and its intercultural character in a participatory, experiential way. It is attempted through the project to promote intercultural dialogue, break stereotypes and prejudice and promote solidarity and mutual understanding. The two-day multicultural festival is to be carried out in November 2018. “SalonIC: Symbiosis ‘n’ InterCulturality is supported by the Onassis Foundation under the “Special Grant and Support Program for Scholars’ Association Members” (Grant No. R ZO 007-1/2018-2019).

-Together in our Neighbourhood: ANTIGONE and ADDART NGOs carry out this project in six primary schools of Thessaloniki. The action is being implemented under the programme “Schools Open to the Neighbourhood”, an initiative of the Municipality of Thessaloniki, Directorate of Education and Sports in collaboration with Creativity Platform NGO that coordinates the program. The programme that runs from June until December 2018 is realized by an exclusive donation of Stavros Niarchos Foundation.

2.2 Projects that their implementation was completed until July 2018

-Housing and integration services addressed to highly vulnerable refugees GRC0217: ANTIGONE, “Greek Council for Refugees” and “Smile of the Child” collaborated in a multilateral project aiming to reduce the number of refugees and asylum seekers in danger.

In the context of the project, refugee population in danger were offered secure and dignified urban housing and refugees and asylum seekers were provided with psychosocial support, specialised treatment and access to legal and social support.

The activities included:

- Staff recruitment and training for the operation of the residences in Thessaloniki, which host temporarily highly vulnerable refugee families

- Release of the accumulated anger and despair that refugees experience, through activities aiming to improve their physical and psychological health: athletic activities, activities with music and movement, self-defence training lessons, artistic activities, chess lessons etc.
- Psychosocial / psychological support of refugees
- Support of the refugees' social life and strengthening of their creative skills through seminars and activities aiming to foster their knowledge and skills, reinforce their self-confidence and empower trust and communication
- Improvement of the cohabitation and mutual approval between the groups living in the Centre of Diavata for Refugees and Relocation seekers through "get together" and team building activities for getting to know each other as well as activities for building trust: theatre game, music, movie projections etc.
- Interaction with local community / de-institutionalization / socialization through events, cultural visits, cooking lessons and other common activities
- Vocational training of intercultural mediators and psychologists active in the refugee camps
- Maintenance and keeping up-to-date the www.123help.gr platform so that refugees have access to information of their interest as well as for Greek citizens to get informed on issues related to refugees (needs that occur etc.).

The project, which followed the previous project HELP SER-124-16, started in February 2017 and was completed in July 2018. It has been funded by the German Federal Office (GFO) and the Help - Hilfe zur Belbsthilfe.

-ARTS, Alternative Routes to Success: ANTIGONE collaborated with organizations from Great Britain, Sweden, Italy and Spain in an Erasmus+ Key Action 2 project addressed to people with disability and mental health problems. Through a series of artistic workshops as well as through their involvement in organizing and participating in various artistic events, participants acquired experience and knowledge, which facilitated their empowerment and boosted their self-esteem. The project inserted an alternative method of self-evaluation based on the accomplishment of personal and group targets jointly set by trainers and participants after the educational activities took place in partner countries. The project started in October 2015 and was completed in July 2018.

<http://www.antigone.gr/gr/projects/project/28/description/>

-GET START: This project was carried out in Greece, Turkey and Italy with the primary aim to create a dynamic learning community that can share best practice and reflect together on the ongoing humanitarian issues. The participants travelled in the partner countries taking part in intercultural educational activities achieving a lifelong learning perspective through formal and non-formal methodology. The project was implemented in the framework of the Erasmus+ Key Action 2 project from September 2016 until May 2018.

<http://www.antigone.gr/gr/projects/project/34/description/>

-Psychological resilience: This project was dedicated to the mental empowerment of over 50 year-old unemployed people who faced either loss of their job or could not find another one, through two series of 12 seminars that lasted three months. The aim of the seminars included the mental empowerment of the participants, the exchange of opinions, thoughts and emotions, the cultivation of the mental resistance as well as their professional reorientation. The project was implemented in the framework of the programme “Points of Support” run by the TIMA and Ioannis S. Latsis Foundations, the charitable organisation “Hellenic Scope” and the Bodosakis Foundation from September 2017 until February 2018.
